Sep 20	N14:Flying W Airport	One Last BBQ • 13:00 - • Help Joe Costanza Celebrate a Bittersweet Occasion, the Last BBQ at an Airport & Hangar that has changed my life. I have met lifelong friends here, I taught my daughters about airplanes here and have spent countless hours alone, late at night, just me and my airplane thinking about life. They say all good things come to an end, unfortunately the ending for this airport is here. The plan is for the Developers to start demolition in the spring to make way for cheaply built, low income housing (on land that is absolutely contaminated with Oil & Avgas). Anyway. Come have a Cheeseburger and talk airplanes before we no longer can. • TBD
